Day 4: Magnificent Day: Windsor Castle, Stonehenge & City of Bath

Be ready today for unforgettable Magnificent Day. We see each other at the meeting point for a dreamy itinerary around the best of London. First, we make a stop to say hi to Queen Elizabeth II at Windsor Castle, the largest and oldest occupied castle in the world. It is a building of around... 1000 years old! And we are not going to see it from outside but also explore the inside: the elegant Royal State Apartments and the St George's Chapel, where the last 10 monarchs rest and where the royal wedding for Prince Harry and Meghan Markle took place, for example. Have you ever heard of Stonehenge? This magical place is our next stop and will make you feel part of a movie set of 5,000 years and hundreds of myths and stories about its creation. It is believed to be a temple, a burial ground but also an astrological clock. What do you think?

You have some free time for having your lunch and recharge your batteries but still one stop left: the city of Bath, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. To know more about the first city in England, take a walking tour with a unique guide around it and the banks of the River Avon. You cannot miss the opportunity to learn more about the history and just leave your imagination discovering all the antique streets.
